What is a Giving Circle?

Model of Collective Giving:

- Individuals pool donations and donors decide together how and where funding is given. Funding remains largely local
- Purpose is primarily philanthropic with learning and networking opportunities.
- Giving is typically independent -- not a fundraising vehicle for a single charity.
- GCs have tripled in number since 2007; granted up to $1.29 billion. Women are the majority of GC members.

What is the Giving Circle of Hope (GCH)?

- Our mission to create positive change in NOVA through engaged & collective philanthropy.
- Founded in January 2004, our 100 members have invested more than $1 million in NOVA community.
- We consolidate our donations and annually award project and capacity building grants to local non-profits.
- Our grants seek to improve the lives of low-income, disadvantaged and underserved people and families in Northern Virginia
- A component fund of the Community Foundation of Northern Virginia

New in 2018: $1M Organ. Budget Limit

Total Organization Financial Budget excluding in-kind services must be equal to or less than $1 million.

Rationale:

- This has been our primary audience. A review of organization budgets of non-profit submissions to the GCH in the last five grant years indicated that only 17% had budgets greater than $1 million.
- Lowering organization budget eligibility to $1 million or less will allow GCH to focus on smaller "developing" and less mature non-profits while resulting in a small reduction in application submissions.

New in 2018: Verify Mission Alignment

Applicants must respond to new GCH mission-related questions addressing:

- How they differentiate themselves from other non-profits providing the same service?
- How their proposal supports the GCH's goals: 1) Encourage community and volunteerism. 2) Encourage self-sufficiency. 3) Increase awareness of local needs. 4) Promote effective philanthropy and encourage effective partnerships

New in 2018: Approval Requirement

Staff Person Submitting Application asked to certify:

- That both the Executive Director and President of the Board of Directors of the organization applying for this grant have reviewed this application and verify that the application accurately reflects the work of the organization.

Should the Giving Circle of HOPE approve the requested funds, they will be used for the purpose stated in this application."
